

It discusses the impact of civil wars, territorial disputes, and international relations on the military capabilities of nations such as Belize, Guatemala, Honduras, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, ...

A complete overview of El Salvadoran armored vehicles from 1937, through their own internal conflicts, and the modern era.

These were effectively a completely stripped M114 Armored Personnel Carrier with no weapons or armor of any kind and arrived via the Guatemalan port of Santo Tomas. Twenty-seven ...

With so many M60s in inventory, El Salvador should not be requiring new fire support weapons for awhile. No need to re-invent the wheel and the weapon can simply be overhauled and ...

The concept contemplated the use of the Dodge M37 3/4 ton trucks chassis, added armor to drivers's cockpit and cargo area, new diesel engine and transmission. The prototype was ...

To meet requirements for an inexpensive wheeled armored personnel carrier, El Salvador's National Armoury built a prototype Cashuat based on the chassis of the US unarmored ...

Light Tank M3A1 Stuart in El Salvadoran Service "Mazzinger-Z" and "Astroboy" Cashuat Marengo M114 in El Salvadoran Service Rayos and Ninas

Armour kits and turrets purchased from the United States and applied in El Salvador Armed with two 20mm HS cannons, used as an anti-aircraft vehicle, designed and produced by the Salvadoran Army.

Mr. Walker founded the Veterans of Special Operations - El Salvador, a grassroots fraternal organization that was at "the tip of the spear" in the 10-year long political campaign to see ...

Unique international project ENCYCLOPEDIA - LIBRARY - MUSEUM of uniform insignias from around the world

Web: <https://www.cgaroofing.co.za>